The Season of Lent Begins

Ash Wednesday

February 25, 2009 from 6:15 to 7:45 PM

The congregation will gather in Fellowship Hall for

- ✚ a simple supper of New Orleans-style soups and gumbos, bread, and fruit
- ✚ a brief, reflective service of worship with the imposition of ashes for those who wish and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper

All ages are welcome for the meal and for worship.

Child care for preschoolers will be available.

Please e-mail (info@unitedprestroy.org) or call the church office (272-2771) on or before Monday, February 23, to reserve your place so that the planning team will know how many to expect for supper.

The Presbyterian poet Ann Weems has written,

“ . . . Lent is a time to allow a fresh new taste of God.!”

May we taste anew the wonder of God's grace as we take this first step on our 2009 Lenten pilgrimage.

A Pastoral Note

from Alexandra

Happy Birthday,
Kay Closson ! ! !

February 22, 2009, is a very special day in the life of one member of this congregation Katherine ('Kay') Closson, for on that day she will celebrate her 100th birthday!!! Kay, who was born in Whitehall and spent some of her early years in Watervliet, lived in Rensselaer County for the balance of her life. She was employed at a local brokerage house for 26 years. Later in life, she shared a lovely home in Castleton with her brother, John, and with her longtime beloved feline companion, Patches. She especially enjoyed seeing the bright yellow finches that flocked to the feeder outside the four-season room at the rear of her house. Kay also has a particular fondness for the area around Grafton, where she spent childhood summers with her aunt and uncle.

Kay has been a member of First United for 33 years, having joined by letter of transfer from the First Presbyterian Church in Albany on September 9, 1976. For a number of years she sang in the choir (she still has a fine voice) and then became one of the storied "ladies five", a group of close friends who sat together in the same pew each week. The others were Helena Waite, Dorretta Ferber, Lena Mann, ~ all so fondly remembered ~ and the warm and wonderful Jean Miller. All of them delighted in the regular presence with them of several of the congregation's children.

Happy Birthday, Kay! We celebrate this special milestone with you lifting prayers of thanksgiving to God for the great joy of your presence among us.

Mission Opportunities:

The Inn From the Cold

The Inn from the Cold is now into its fourth month and will be housed at the Rourke Center on Fourth Street during February and March. If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail ( alexandra@unitedprestroy.org ) or phone (272-2771, ext. 12) Rev. Lusak.

Presbyterian Church (USA) Fast for World Hunger

Our national denomination, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is inviting us to participate in 40-hour churchwide fast days beginning on the first Friday of every month and ending the following day "to empathize with those suffering from hunger and famine around the world.

Violence in Gaza Can you help?

If you would like to make a financial contribution to help those in the Middle East traumatized by the violence of the recent conflict in Gaza, you can make a check out to First United and note "DR000081-F1" on the memo line. You can also donate online at www.pcusa.org/pda .

Ministry of Music News

from Maury Castro

In the history of humanity, the ability to record music has been very recent. And yet what an impact this has had, especially in churches! For one, with access to a plethora of highly talented vocalists at our fingertips, there is a general embarrassment and fear of letting our own voice be heard in church. Choir members are brave, aren't they?!! Another impact that recordings have is that we don't treasure the experience of live music as we once did. If one's only opportunity to hear organized music was on Sunday morning at church, one would definitely savor it much more than we currently do, where it is but one part of an array of musical bombardments we receive constantly.

But music in church will always remain different. Music in the church is an offering to God that is rooted in our deepest selves that, hopefully, expresses our deepest desires.

Upcoming Events:

PETER AND THE WOLF at TROY NIGHT OUT
Friday, March 27 from 6 – 6:30 p.m.

The March Troy Night Out has been dubbed "Kids Night Out." In celebration of this event, I will be presenting an organ transcription of Prokofiev's wonderful "Peter and the Wolf," narrated by Dan Rogers. Put it on your calendar and invite a friend of any age! Free with donations accepted.

SUMMER MUSIC DAY CAMP
June 29 – July 3
9 a.m. – 3 p.m. at First United.

I am still working on the details for this week-long event. If you are interested in participating in the planning process, please contact me at the church!

Session News

from Don Drew, Clerk of Session

Session met on February 2 with the Chairs of First United's committees and discussed church organization. What we have been, what we are, and what we should be is not a simple set of issues. We decided to look at church functions (that is, what we do) and work toward organizing around them. We invite you to communicate with us (you can email me at drewd@rpi.edu) about your thoughts and concerns, about what we do, what we are, and what we mean to you.

Can you help with Providing Refreshments?

Please look at the Refreshment Sign-up Board in Fellowship Hall and put your name on one or more Sundays you would be able to be responsible for the refreshments. If you are unable to get refreshments you may also make a monetary contribution and someone else will take care of getting refreshments for you. Thank you. ~Betsy Belle Eddie

Faith Education News

from Linda Briggs Larson

Greetings.

Have you ever had those times when you made plans and they came off without a hitch. The weather cooperated, everyone arrived on time, the event met or even surpassed expectations, and all went home wanting more of the same. You have? Well, so have I. Just not lately. Lately it seems that one thing or another has fallen like a log in my path. Things I have looked forward to have required rescheduling, or even cancelling, events have required flexible restructuring and not my well designed plan. I remember the phrase "on a roll" but haven't been able to use it with any truthfulness. I start rolling and run into a wall, or so it seems. I try to consider lilies to keep myself from toil and spinning; to live one day at a time, to keep from worry; to let go and let God, to keep me trusting that all will work out, in the long run. But all those nice thoughts are easier when I am truly "on a roll."

Isn't it often easier to see God in our daily lives when things go smoothly? But the truth is that God is working in our midst ever so closely when we seem to have no control at all. And one day, we will reflect on our rocky road and understand why it had to be so, but for now we must trust.

This time before Lent is a time of growth. Growth can be gradual or sudden, but is almost always a time when we can plan but not predict what will happen next. Faith is indeed trusting God for the outcome.

So let's have faith.

The Faith Educator's Retreat Rescheduled

Who are Faith Educators? Teachers of adults and of children on Sunday morning. That's obvious. But also parents, aunts, uncles, caring adults in the next pew. Maybe you did teach once, long ago. Maybe you have children in classes and you think you may want to teach one day. If you want to get away for a retreat that can offer you an opportunity to find spiritual refreshment, fun in the snow, good food, and a chance to network with other educators throughout the Presbytery, pick up a flyer and register for the retreat at the
